

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE INAUGURATION
OF THE
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
ON THE FOURTH OF MARCH, 1861.

The doors of the Senate Chamber will be opened at 11 o'clock A. M., for the admission of Senators and others who, by the arrangement of the Committee, are entitled to admission, as follows:

Ex-Presidents and Vice Presidents.

The Chief Justice and Associate Judges of the Supreme Court.

The Diplomatic Corps, Heads of Departments, and Ex-Members of either branch of Congress, and Members of Congress elect.

Officers of the Army and Navy who, by name, have received the thanks of Congress.

Governors of States and Territories of the Union, and Ex-Governors of States. Assistant Secretaries of Departments, and the Assistant Postmaster General; the Comptrollers, Auditors, Register, and Solicitors of the Treasury, Treasurer, Commissioners, Judges, and

The Mayors of Washington and Georgetown, and the reporters in the Senate.

All of whom will be admitted at the north door of the Capitol.

The families of the Diplomatic Corps will enter at the north door of the Capitol, and be conducted to the diplomatic gallery.

Seats will be placed in front of the Secretary's table for the President of the United States and the President elect; and, on their left, for the Committee of Arrangements.

The Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court will have seats on the right of the Chair.

The Diplomatic Corps will occupy seats on the right of the Chair, next to the Supreme Court. Heads of Departments on the left of the Chair.

Officers of the Army and Navy who, by name, have received the thanks of Congress; Governors of States and Territories of the Union, Ex-Governors of States, Assistant Secretaries of Departments, and the Assistant Postmaster General, Comptrollers, Auditors, Register, and Solicitor of the Treasury, Treasurer, Commissioners, Judges, and the Mayors of Washington and Georgetown, will occupy seats on the right and left of the main entrance.

Members of Congress, and Members elect, will enter the Senate Chamber by the main entrance, and will occupy seats on the left of the Chair.

The galleries will be reserved for ladies, who will enter the Capitol from the terrace, by the principal western door of the central building, and be conducted to the gallery of the Senate.

The Rotunda shall be closed, and the passages leading thereto kept clear.

The other doors and entrances to the Capitol, except those to be opened under this arrangement, will be kept closed.

At 11 o'clock the President and the President elect, accompanied by two members of the Committee of Arrangements, will proceed in a carriage to the north door of the north wing of the Capitol, and entering there will proceed to the President's room.

The Vice President elect will be accompanied to the Capitol by a member of the Committee of Arrangements, and conducted into the Vice President's room, and afterwards into the Senate Chamber, where the oath of office will be administered to him by the Vice President.

The Diplomatic Corps and the Justices of the Supreme Court will enter the Senate Chamber a few minutes before the President elect.

The Senate will assemble at 12 o'clock.

The Senate being ready to receive them, the President and the President elect will be introduced by the Committee of Arrangements to the seats prepared for them in the Senate Chamber.

After a short pause, those assembled in the Senate Chamber will proceed to the platform on the central portico of the Capitol in the following order:

The Marshal of the District of Columbia.

The Supreme Court of the United States.

The Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

The Committee of Arrangements.

The President of the United States and the President elect.

The Members of the Senate.

The Diplomatic Corps.

Heads of Departments, Governors of States and Territories, the Mayors of Washington and Georgetown, and other persons who have been admitted into the Senate Chamber.

On reaching the front of the portico, the President elect will take the seat provided for him in front of the platform.

The President and the Committee of Arrangements will occupy a position in the rear of the President elect.

Next in the rear of the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court will occupy the seats on the left, and the Vice President, Secretary and members of Senate, those on the right.

The Diplomatic Corps will occupy the seats next in the rear of the Supreme Court. Heads of Departments, Governors, and Ex-Governors of States and Territories, and Ex-Members of the Senate, Ex-Members, and Members elect of the House of Representatives, in the rear of the Members of the Senate.

Such other persons as are included in the preceding arrangements will occupy the steps and the residue of the portico.

All being in readiness, the oath of office will be administered to the President elect by the Chief Justice; and on the conclusion of the President's address, the Members of the Senate, preceded by the Vice President, Secretary, and Sergeant-at-Arms, will return to the Senate Chamber, and the President, accompanied by the Committee of Arrangements, will proceed to the President's House.

The Marshal of the District of Columbia, with the Marshal of the District, are charged with the execution of these arrangements; and aided by the police of the Capitol, will preserve order.

All horses and carriages will be excluded from the Capitol square.

Should the weather prove unfavorable, the ceremony of the Inauguration will take place in the Senate Chamber.

SOUTHERN MEDICAL HOUSE.
DR. SHUMAN has, after an experience of ten years, established the above refuge from quackery, self-labelled Indian or German doctors, pretenders of witchcraft and impostors in general.

This is the only place where a sure and speedy cure can be obtained in the world for all improper and evil habits, gonorrhea, gleet, seminal weakness, syphilis, primary, secondary, and tertiary, organic weakness, pains in the limbs, stricture, general debility, prostration, nervousness, restless nights, palpitation of the heart, ringing in the ears, loss of memory, confusion, melancholy, affections of the head, throat, nose, and skin, and all those peculiar disorders arising from the indiscretion of youth, rendering them unfit for either business, study, society, or marriage.

Dr. S. has the greatest remedies in the known world for diseases of the blood, gonorrhea, gleet, stricture, syphilis, seminal weakness, self-abuse, &c. There is no case in which they fail to cure in from 3 to 6 days.

Victims of these horrible complaints, who would wish to be valuable men and ornaments to society, should embrace the earliest opportunity for relief.

Dr. Shuman has made the most complete arrangements for the comfort of his patients who come from a distance. They will be furnished with the most pleasant and agreeable quarters, necessary diet, and made as comfortable as they would be at a first-class hotel at less than half the cost.

Do not forget the name and number. Dr. Shuman's office is on the corner of Sixth street and Pennsylvania avenue, Clarendon Hotel, opposite the National Hotel, Washington, D. C.

Persons at a distance should enclose stamp for return postage. Office hours, 9 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Various parties have been enticed from my institution by certain swindlers on back streets in this city, who will ruin it till the day of their death. A word to the wise is sufficient.
